AN APPEAL

I am writing to appeal for financial help to enable Smt. Rina Das, Contractual Non-teaching Staff of the School of Education Technology, Jadavpur University to undergo treatment due to the hepatic failure with hepatitis C infection and undertake liver transplantation for her survival. The cost of her medical treatment is approximately Rs. 15 lakh to 18 Lakh. She has lost her husband few years back and lives alone without any other source of income and unable to meet the exorbitant medical expenditure that has to be incurred in order to continue the treatment.

I am accordingly taking this opportunity of appealing to all members of the University community to donate one-day's salary to enable Smt. Das to continue her medical treatment. If any member of the University community agrees to donate his/her one-day's salary, he/she may request the Finance Officer to deduct the same from his/her salary as per format enclosed herewith.

I do hope that the members of the University community will favourably respond to this appeal to help the contractual non-teaching staff of the University.
