For the attention of all students of Jadavpur University:

You are requested to kindly note the following points:

1. University is awaiting the formal West Bengal Government Notification, and UGC and/or AICTE Notifications/Advisories concerning holding of Semester classes and examinations.
2. Once we receive these Notifications, we will certainly consult the students and adopt measures in tune with the Notifications, and in the best interests of students. Students are requested not to get worried.
3. The concern for Supplementary examinations will be addressed taking into consideration the students' interests.
4. We all need to wait till the University reopens.
