This is to inform you that ULNE (Universite Lille Nord-Europe) I-SITE is inviting applications for its Graduate Programmes (GP) of excellence: Graduate Programme Health, Graduate Programme “Information and Knowledge Society” and Graduate Programme for “Science for a changing planet”.

Each GP offers high level fully English research-driven and cross-disciplinary graduate programs (Masters and PhD) to a pool of graduate, PhD students and post-doctorates. These programmes include mandatory internship periods in research labs and/or in companies as well as a study or internship program abroad.

Scholarships are available for students with excellent academic records and applying to one of the master degree of the Graduate Programme. Two calls for application are organized:

- i) a first call, ending the 15th March 2021
- ii) a second call, ending the 20th June 2021

Benefits:

1) Scholarships for the academic year, renewable in M2

- Criteria: students having the highest academic records
- Amount: 3500 euros / academic year

2) International relocation grants (contribution to student travel and installation costs)

- Criteria: student who is awarded the scholarship for the academic year, having the highest academic records, newly arrived in Lille and coming from another country than France
- Amount: 3500 euros / academic year

NOTE: The Graduate Programme grants cannot be cumulated with other scholarships such as Erasmus, Labex (Cempi, CAPPa) or Make Our Planet Great Again (MOPGA).

The interested candidates can find more details on the webpage of each Graduate Programme, listed in the attached file or here. For questions regarding the application procedure, write to graduate-programme-iks@univ-lille.fr.
